"Give - and you will have treasure in heaven"
 Reading 1: Wisdom 7:7-11 Resp Ps: Ps 90:12-13, 14-15, 16-17
 Reading 2: Hebrews 4:12-13 Gospel : Mark 10:17-30

Meditation:
 A young man who had the best the world could offer - wealth and security - came to Jesus because he lacked one thing (Mark 10:17-27). He wanted the kind of lasting peace and happiness which money could not buy him. He protested that he kept all the commandments - but Jesus spoke to the trouble in his heart. One thing kept him from giving himself whole-heartedly to God. He placed his hope and security in what he possessed. So when Jesus challenged him to make God his one true possession and treasure, he became sad.
 Why does Jesus tell his disciples to "sell all" for the treasure of his kingdom? Treasure has a special connection to the heart, the place of desire and longing, the place of will and focus. The thing we most set our heart on is our highest treasure. The Lord himself is the greatest treasure we can have. Giving up everything else to have the Lord as our treasure is not sorrowful, but the greatest joy. Selling all that we have could mean many different things - letting go of attachments, friendships, influences, jobs, entertainments, styles of life - really anything that might stand in the way of our loving God first and foremost in our lives and giving him the best we can with our time, resources, gifts, and service.
 God blesses us with the priceless treasures of his kingdom - freedom from fear and the griping power of sin, selfishness and pride which block his love and grace in our lives. Freedom from loneliness, isolation and rejection which keep his children from living together in love, peace, and unity. And freedom from hopelessness, despair, and disillusionment which blind our vision of God's power to heal every hurt, bind every wound, and remove every blemish which mar the image of God within us. God offers us treasure which money cannot buy. He alone can truly satisfy the deepest longing and desires of our heart.
 Why is Jesus so cautious about wealth? The Gospel presents us with a paradox: we lose what we keep, and we gain what we give away. When we lose our lives for Jesus Christ, we gain a priceless treasure and an inheritance which lasts forever. Whatever we give to God comes back a hundredfold. Generosity flows from a heart full of gratitude for the abundant mercy and grace which God grants. And generosity will be amply repaid, both in this life and in the life to come (Proverbs 3:9-10, Luke 6:38). Jesus offers us an incomparable treasure which no money can buy and no thief can steal. The thing we most set our heart on is our highest treasure. Material wealth will shackle us to this earth unless we guard our hearts and set our treasure on God and his everlasting kingdom. Do you know the joy of the Lord and the treasure he has stored up for us in heaven?
Questions for Community Faith Sharing:
 1. What gives hope and satisfaction to your desire for happiness and security? Where is your treasure?
 2. Are you willing to part with anything that might keep you from seeking true joy with Jesus? What is that treasure that you are willing to give up right now for God?
 3. What's the best investment you can make with your life now and in the future?

~~~~~
 "Lord Jesus, you have captured our hearts and opened to us the treasures of heaven. May you always be my treasure and delight and may nothing else keep me from giving you my all."

MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTIONS will (SAT 20 & SUN 21 OCTOBER 2018)

Collections taken at all Masses on the above dates will be for the spread of the Gospel. The total amount collected needs to be placed at the disposal of the Universal Fund of the Pontifical Mission Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Willing to tell others about Jesus but don't know where to start?

Try this: Before meeting your family members or friends who have yet to know Jesus, pray for your conversations with each one of them to be God - centered.
