HEARTFELT THANKS TO ALL INVOLVES FOR THE CHURCH CLEANING DAY

A big thank you to everyone who came together on the morning of 6th December 2025 for our Church Cleaning Day. Your time, effort, and joyful spirit truly made a difference as we prepared our Church for the coming of our Lord this Christmas.

We are deeply grateful for your dedication, teamwork,
and love for our parish community.

A TALK BY DR REGINALD TEO

Christmas. As It Happened...

Drama. Danger. Courage. Faith.

Date: 9 Dec 2025 @ 8pm
Venue: Church Hall
Speaker: Dr Reginald Teo

All are welcome!

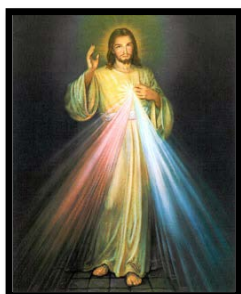

Christmas in 4AD. From the moment of the Annunciation, the Christmas journey is filled with drama and danger. Unmarried, shame, misunderstood. The long journey to Bethlehem filled with danger from the terrain and bandits. Rejected from lodging and into a cave. Pursued by soldiers with the intent to kill. Poor in a foreign land. 3 years of exile. Hear how God provides for His Son and the Holy Family.

This Advent, journey back to 4 A.D. and witness the story of Christmas unfold like never before. From the moment of the Annunciation to the perilous road to Bethlehem, this talk captures the drama, danger, and courage of the Holy Family - a story of faith that still moves hearts today. Join us for "Christmas... As It Happened" on Tuesday, 9 December at 8pm in our Church Hall.

All are welcome - do come with family and friends, and let this night prepare your hearts for the true meaning of Christmas.

Announcement

There will be no Divine Mercy Devotion on Sunday, 21st Dec; 26th Dec; 28th Dec 2025 and 4 January 2026.
